

Funmbi is a regulatory pharmacist and business development lead in a pharmaceutical firm in Nigeria. He earned his Bachelors of Pharmacy from the Obafemi Awolowo University, Nigeria. Currently, he holds three global health certification courses from the University of Washington relating to leadership, epidemiology, and project management.

With 3 years' experience cutting across a variety of roles in hospital pharmacy, logistics and supply chain management, public health and the pharmaceutical industry, Funmbi is very knowledgeable about the Nigerian health sector. He is passionate about the pharmacy profession and has served actively in various capacities in pharmacy-aligned organizations. He has served in a variety of roles locally in the Nigeria Academy of Pharmacy (NAPharm) and Pharmaceutical Society of Nigeria (PSN) as well as globally in the International Pharmaceutical Students Federation (IPSF) and International Pharmaceutical Federation (FIP).

Over the years, Funmbi has also garnered three years' experience managing a variety of non-profit organizations successfully. Particularly, as the Lagos State Coordinator of the Pharmaceutical Society of Nigeria Young Pharmacists Group (PSN-YPG), Funmbi led the restructuring of the organization to become sustainable with high membership involvement. He also led numerous drug abuse initiatives and other public health campaigns that impacted 12,000 graduates, 9,000 students, 1000 parents, 600 individuals, and 200 sportsmen. His activities in this role resulted in his nomination for the 2019 Pharmanews Young Pharmacist of the Year Award.

Having joined the International Pharmaceutical Federation (FIP) in 2018 for the 78th FIP World Congress of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Science in Glasgow, Scotland, Funmbi served in the Working Committee on YPG Member-based Organizations in 2019. He was later elected as the Chairperson of Public Relations on the FIP-YPG 2020 Steering Committee at the 79th FIP World Congress of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Science in Abu Dhabi, UAE.

Funmbi is also a member of the Global Health Workforce Network (GHWN) Youth Hub, International Association of Public Health Logisiticians (IAPHL), and the Professional Society for Health Economics and Outcomes Research (ISPOR). He has attended a host of local and international conferences and trainings. His wide range of interests include infectious diseases, antimicrobial resistance, substance abuse, epidemiology and global health. When he is not busy getting things done, Funmbi loves to travel, meet new people, go on adventures, and try new things.
